

Remember deployed troops with Presents in a Package 2022 event

October 4, 2022 in Community

By Nola Brown

Volunteer Kansas www.volunteerkansas.org

Presents in a Package back in full-force, after canceling one year and scaling back another during the pandemic. An estimated 450,000 men and women serve overseas, sadly more than 50 percent never get a care package. Volunteer Kansas and NCRI – National Catastrophe Restoration, Inc.

Latest Stories

LINDA C.BLACK
HOROSCOPES October 5,
2022

Greenback girls take golf competition to the next level
October 4, 2022

Pyatt earns Master Municipal
Clerk distinction October 4,
2022

Richard Joseph Rohling
October 4, 2022

Hugo Louis Westphal October
4, 2022

Lillian Mae (Keller) Koger
October 4, 2022

Larry James Ryan October 4,
2022

Thomas Wayne Sponaugle
October 4, 2022

We are all Samaritans October
4, 2022

would like your help in changing that by inviting you to participate in their upcoming Presents in a Package Event.

Whatever God is asking you to do, DO IT October 4, 2022

There are three ways to get involved: 1. Donate items to be packaged and sent to our service men and women. Drop them off during business hours at NCRI, 8447 E. 35th St. N. in Wichita by November 7th. (A full list of items accepted is available at www.volunteerkansas.org.) 2. Donate to the postage fund. It costs nearly $20 to ship each care package. Online donations can be made at www.facebook.com/volunteerkansas/ or by making checks payable to Volunteer Kansas and mailing to: Volunteer Kansas PO Box 781598 Wichita, KS 67278 3. Signing up at www.volunteerkansas.org for one of two volunteer shifts on November 11, 2022 (10 a.m. -noon or noon – 2:00 p.m.) at NCRI 8447 E. 35th St. N., Wichita. The day will be spent sorting and putting together the care packages.

“Anyone who has a deployed loved one from Kansas, whom they would like to receive a care package during the holidays, should email the serviceperson’s name and mailing address to presentsinapackage@gmail.com by November 7, 2022,” said Nola Brown, executive director of Volunteer Kansas and event co-organizer.

“The goal of Presents in a Package is to reach as many Kansas troops overseas as possible. We want them to know we support them and are thinking of them as they serve our country, away from their homes and families,” said NCRI marketing manager and event co-organizer Katy Timken.

Volunteer Kansas, Inc., is a 501(c)(3) charity based in Wichita, Kan. Volunteerkansas.org is the organization’s website devoted to increasing volunteerism in the state of Kansas and providing a hub for Kansans to find other Kansans who may need volunteer or material help. The website is a free service to individuals and organizations.